LAS CRUCES HIGH SCHOOL
LAS CRUCES, NEW MEXICO

What is Pride ?

What is Pride? According to the American College Dictionary, pride can consist of several qualities. The one that best applies to the theme of the 1967 Crosses is the third definition which says, "pleasure or satisfaction taken in something done by or belonging to oneself, or conceived as reflecting credit to oneself." Pride in Las Cruces High School is similar and fitting to the dictionary definition of pride. Each student at LCHS has this pleasure or satisfaction in everything done at LCHS and by LCHS'ers. This pride is not the kind of pride that was discussed by Marlowe in his Tragicall Historie of Doctor Faustus, but is the kind of pride that is manifest in headlines of the daily newspaper late in November, "Nation Shows Pride in Fighting Forces." It is a pride that is earned and deserved. The students of LCHS are forever returning to their alma mater to tell of the good preparation they have received at LCHS. They are forever saying that they are proud of the fact that they have been associated with LCHS. The Crosses staff feels that this earned pride is worthy of comment, and they wish to show just why this pride is so important to every person associated with Las Cruces High School.

As these photos show, the life of LCHS'ers is indeed one filled with a great deal of fun. There are the activities of the prom, the floats, and the spirit. One might forget these drama filled moments, but they will never forget the great activity of the year 1967.

Besides the fun, we will also never forget the toil of studying. The scholarships awarded LCHS graduates are numerous, and filled with honor. Here are shown four people who have excelled in studies.

and Fun

Students show pride in LCHS by participating in formal social activities.

Confusion and general chaos would have resulted during registration had it not been for the office workers.

Physical dexterity and mental cunning are musts on the mat.

Pride Stimulates!

School life is such that one must have pride in all his efforts or they go to waste. Pride is getting points in a P. E. wrestling match just as much as rewriting that near-perfect English theme. Pride is that inside one that makes one dissatisfied with a "C" or a "B". It's that that makes the grade an "A" the next time.

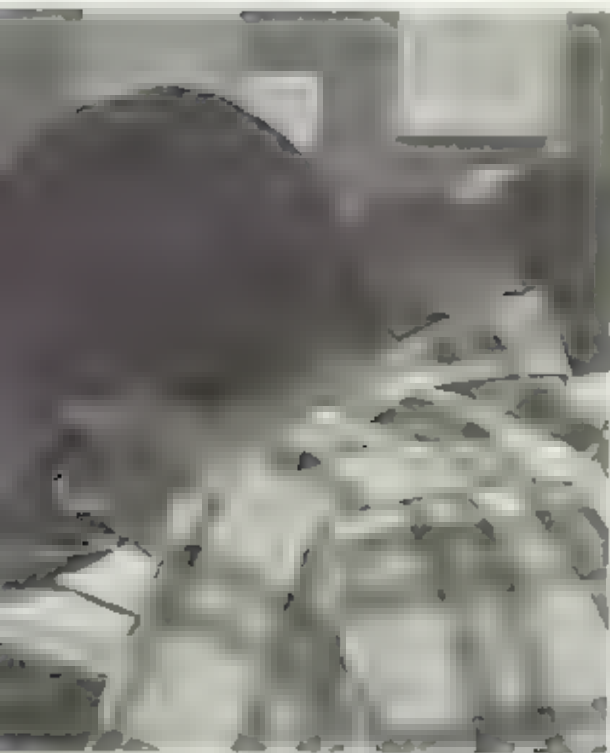

Some problems offered in LCHS classes cause intellectual problems that are perplexing.

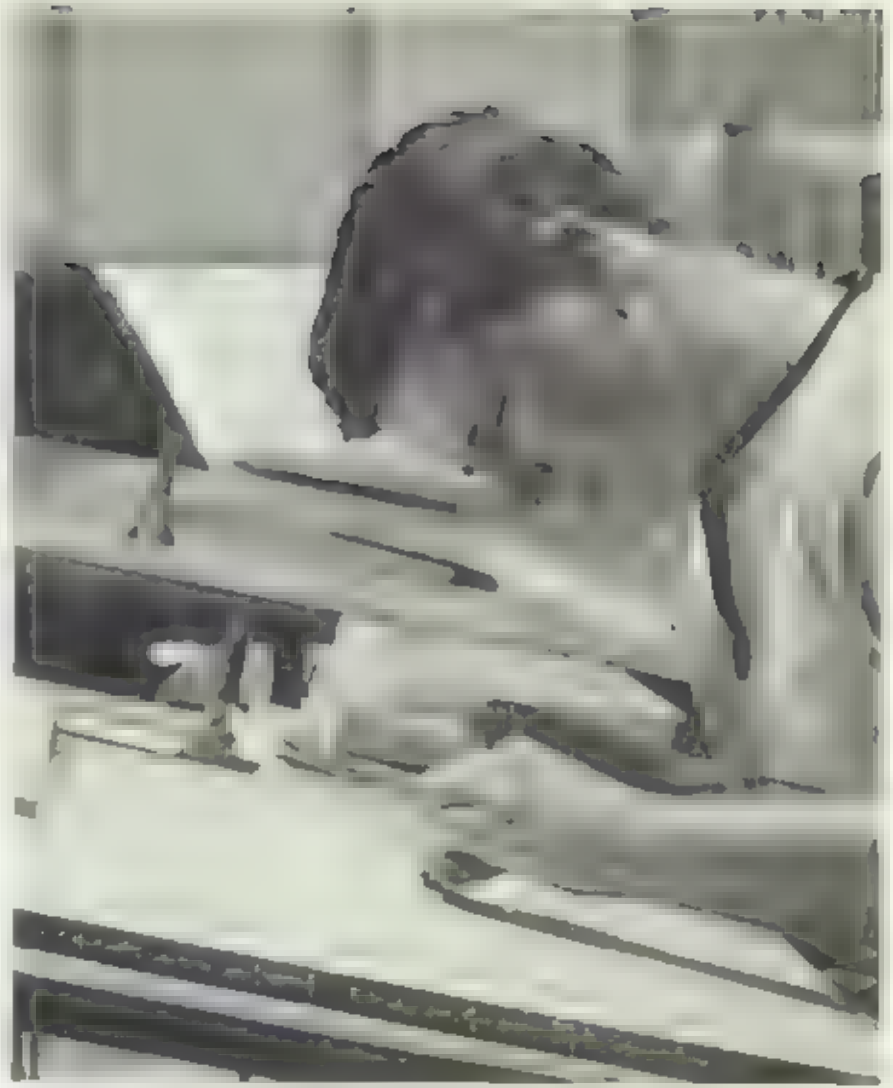

School Develops!

Pride can make a man think harder when his head hurts, but it can't do his thinking. That is what school's all about. School brings out capabilities in people. School makes reality out of potential. School is a tool, pride is a motive—and full life is the goal.

1966-1967 witnessed the best Homecoming Parade in the history of LCHS, as evidenced by the distinctive beauty of the second place winner, the Senior Class Float. This entry, which reflected the result of many hours of pride-filled work by the Class of 1967, was entitled "Snoopy."

Diligence in Activities

Diligence is exemplified in all activities conducted at LCHS. Both curricular and extra-curricular activities are pursued with energy complimentary to the student body, faculty, and administration. Pep assemblies were more in number this year because students proved to have more spirit than ever before. Clubs were more active in backing sports and promoting charitable drives beneficial to the community. Class rooms were less crowded to allow more individual attention to be devoted to each student.

Industrious, active LCHS'ers personified diligence as they answered the demands of society. Civic, cultural academic and honorary endeavors were fulfilled with the painstaking efforts of diligence

Many questions arise during class time. Mr. Gadberry, Algebra teacher, aids a student with a problem.

Pride in our School life

Pride is a part of school life. It stands forth in such school memories as the homecoming game or the school prom; a role in the drama or a place on the debating team; the class ring or class honors; the pep rallies or the after-school coke at the local drive-in. Pride is not the reason or purpose of the school's existence, but it definitely adds to its life a sparkle, a verve, an interest, an opportunity for personal contacts. Pride is an essential part of our school life. LCHS is not a new school, and it is not a small school, but it abounds with the type of pride that is thought to be found only in the other types of schools. This is a pride of being; a pride of existence. This pride of being evolves into a pride of being the best. Las Cruces High School is not just the best high school in town or the best high school in the state; it is the best high school in the world, and all of its students know this. There is also a pride in tradition. Since 1956, LCHS has become known as one of the most outstanding schools in New Mexico. We have developed a reputation for being the best, and this is a reputation we are proud of. With many state championships under our belt, we entered into the 1966-67 school year with feelings of accomplishment and hopes for even greater honors in the year to come. This year has not been bad for us; in fact, it has been a very good year for each of us. The Class of 1969 introduced itself to the school and learned the traditions and reputation it had to uphold. The Class of 1968 rounded out its personality to more fully adapt itself to these traditions and reputations, and prepared to take control of the leadership of the school. The Class of 1967 lead the other classes in our traditions and reputation, and finally bid a long, sad farewell to Las Cruces High School. In a few years we will all be out of here and off to whatever fate the future may have in store for us. We will look back on these years in high school and remember the activities we enjoyed; the way we felt about our school. In later years, we will still feel pride in Las Cruces High School: a pride in accomplishment. Pride is not the reason or purpose of the school's existence, but it definitely adds to its life a sparkle, a verve, an interest, an opportunity for personal contacts. This yearbook captures and preserves the memories of friends and activities, the classes, and the teachers; it thus fosters a spirit of school loyalty as perhaps nothing else can.

Representatives of PRIDE at LCHS

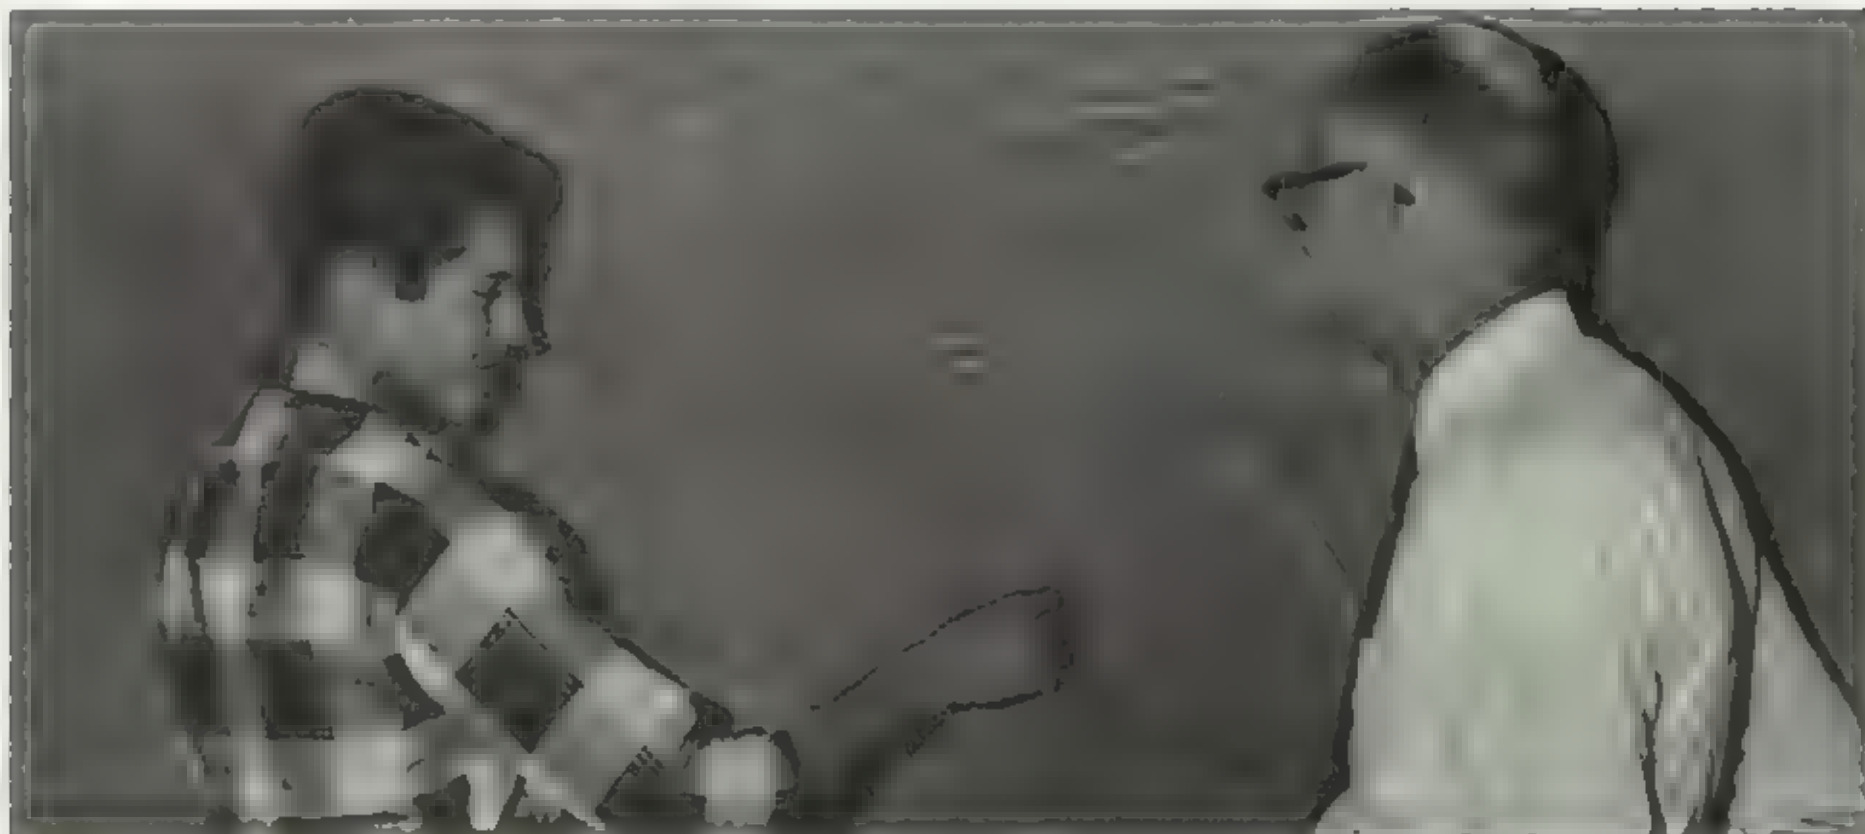

We are proud of our academics!

Perhaps the greatest source of pride at LCHS is manifest in the academic standards set by the school system. Among the many excellent courses offered this year, the newest is the IBM Computer course that is taught in connection with the University.

Students may well be proud of the well-rounded course selection in all the humanities, sciences, languages and art courses. There are courses designed to accommodate the needs of every student at our school. One may take training in agriculture, home economics, business, art, crafts, athletics, and driver education. LCHS truly says through its excellent program that the academic part of school life is first and foremost.

Computer Course

Computer programming instructors Doug Haden and Ed Harris, seniors at New Mexico state, discuss the results from a student's answer sheet.

The Mathematics Department of Las Cruces High School is staffed by many well-educated teachers. The courses offered consist of Algebra I and II, Geometry, Physical Geometry, and Senior Math. Algebra I serves as a basis for the other math courses, and introduces students to an understanding of the principles and mastery of skills which will aid pupils even though they might not decide to pursue advanced mathematics. Geometry teaches the student the relationship of plane and three-dimensional objects, while Algebra I includes the relationships of numbers. Physical Geometry is a special course for students not intending to enter college. Senior math introduces the students to trigonometry. It also delves into such topics as complex numbers and inverse functions, as well as a beginning study of linear and quadratic functions and relations.

A new subject made available to seniors is a college computer programming course. Its goal is to provide the student with the theoretical and experience required to program a digital computer. Students will touch on such topics as the history of the computer, programming concepts, and advanced programming techniques, as well as many special topics. The class will be taught in a college-like environment. Instructors are Doug Haden and Ed Harris, both seniors at N.M.S.U. The basic instruction is held in class, but the students are in constant touch with the college; the students may use the college computers. This work is done on their own time.

The Science Department of LCHS is divided into four main fields: Applied Science, Biology, Physics, and Chemistry. Applied Science is a course of general science. Biology familiarizes the student with the basic relationship of living things. Matter is the concern of Chemistry; it explores its forms, and the way it changes. Physics studies the relationships between matter and energy. It includes a study of mechanics, heat, sound, electricity, and nuclear physics. Science courses effect a student's future.

Four levels of Spanish are offered which include a special course for Spanish-speaking students, a course for the more advanced students, and a special course for English speaking students.

Mrs. Perry points out an interesting city in France.

The English Department is geared at instructing students in the proper use of the language. The courses made available are: three years of English, with an honors program offered for each course, Journalism, Publications I and II, and Speech I, II, and III. All students are required to take the three years of English, which combine grammar with literature and composition. Journalism instructs students in newspaper history and procedure, and gives them practical experience in the production of The Bulldog Reminder, the school newspaper. Publications II offers more experience in the newspaper field. Publications I is responsible for producing The Crosses, the school yearbook, as well as Echoes, a creative writing publication. Speech I is a basic course in practical public speaking. Speech II is concerned with dramatic productions, and Speech III is primarily a course in debate.

These courses give students a close look at the world, the United States, current events, government functions, and peoples of the world.

Mr. Sanborn answers a question on the Dominican Republic.

Albert Holguin works hard at a shop project.

Arts, Crafts Teach Skills

The Arts and Crafts Department concerns itself with physical creativity. The basic art course teaches the fundamentals of drawing, and study includes the history of art and different methods. Crafts introduces the student to the basic ideas of the original projects. There are three art courses offered, two crafts courses, and a course in Commercial Art. This emphasizes lettering, layouts, and drawings made for the purpose of reproduction.

Music Classes Best in State

Students at LCHS have an opportunity to develop their interest in music with the fine offerings of music including Concert Band, Symphonic Band, Boys' Chorus, Girls' Chorus, Mixed Chorus, Orchestra A, B, and String Ensemble. These musical groups perform at games, concert, service, club, vocational, banquets, and other functions.

Train in Vocational Areas

Skip Hinkel removes a brake drum in Vocational Auto Mechanics.

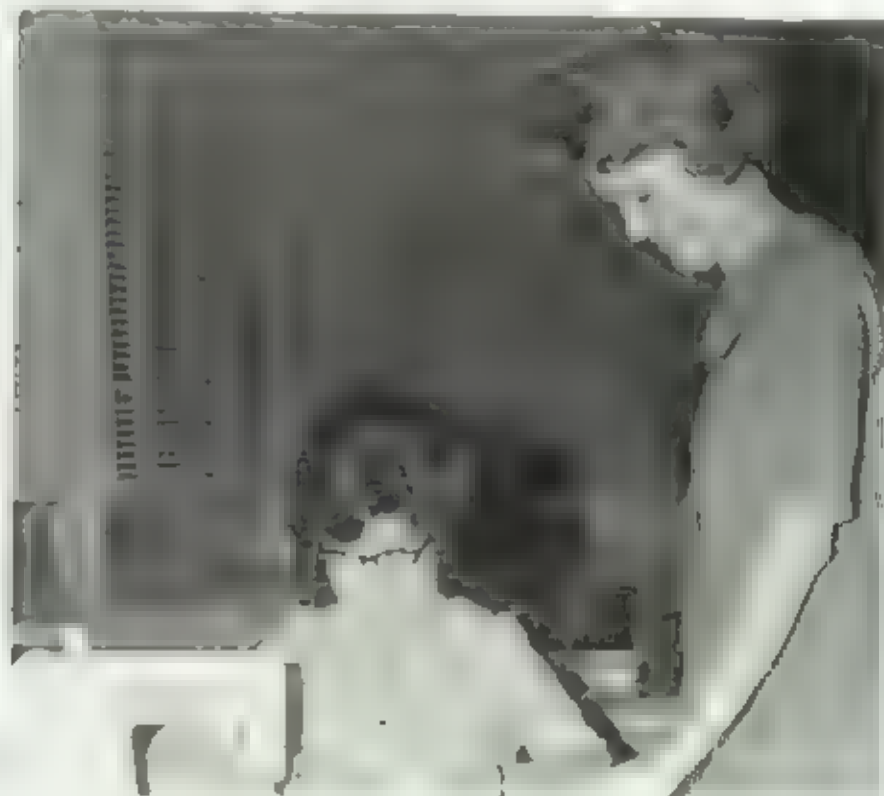

The Industrial and Vocational Education Department can be divided into Vocational Drawing, Auto Mechanics, Vocational Agriculture, and Woodworking. Architectural Drawing studies construction principles and architectural details. General Drafting covers the rules and principles fundamental to the making and reading of mechanical drawings. Mechanical Drawing includes drawings of mechanical devices, appliances, and equipment. General Auto Mechanics is a basic classroom course, while Vocational Auto Mechanics is a three-hour shop course. Vocational Agriculture covers a study of livestock, soil, and farm management. Woodworking classes create functional objects from wood.

Home Ec Prepares for Home Living

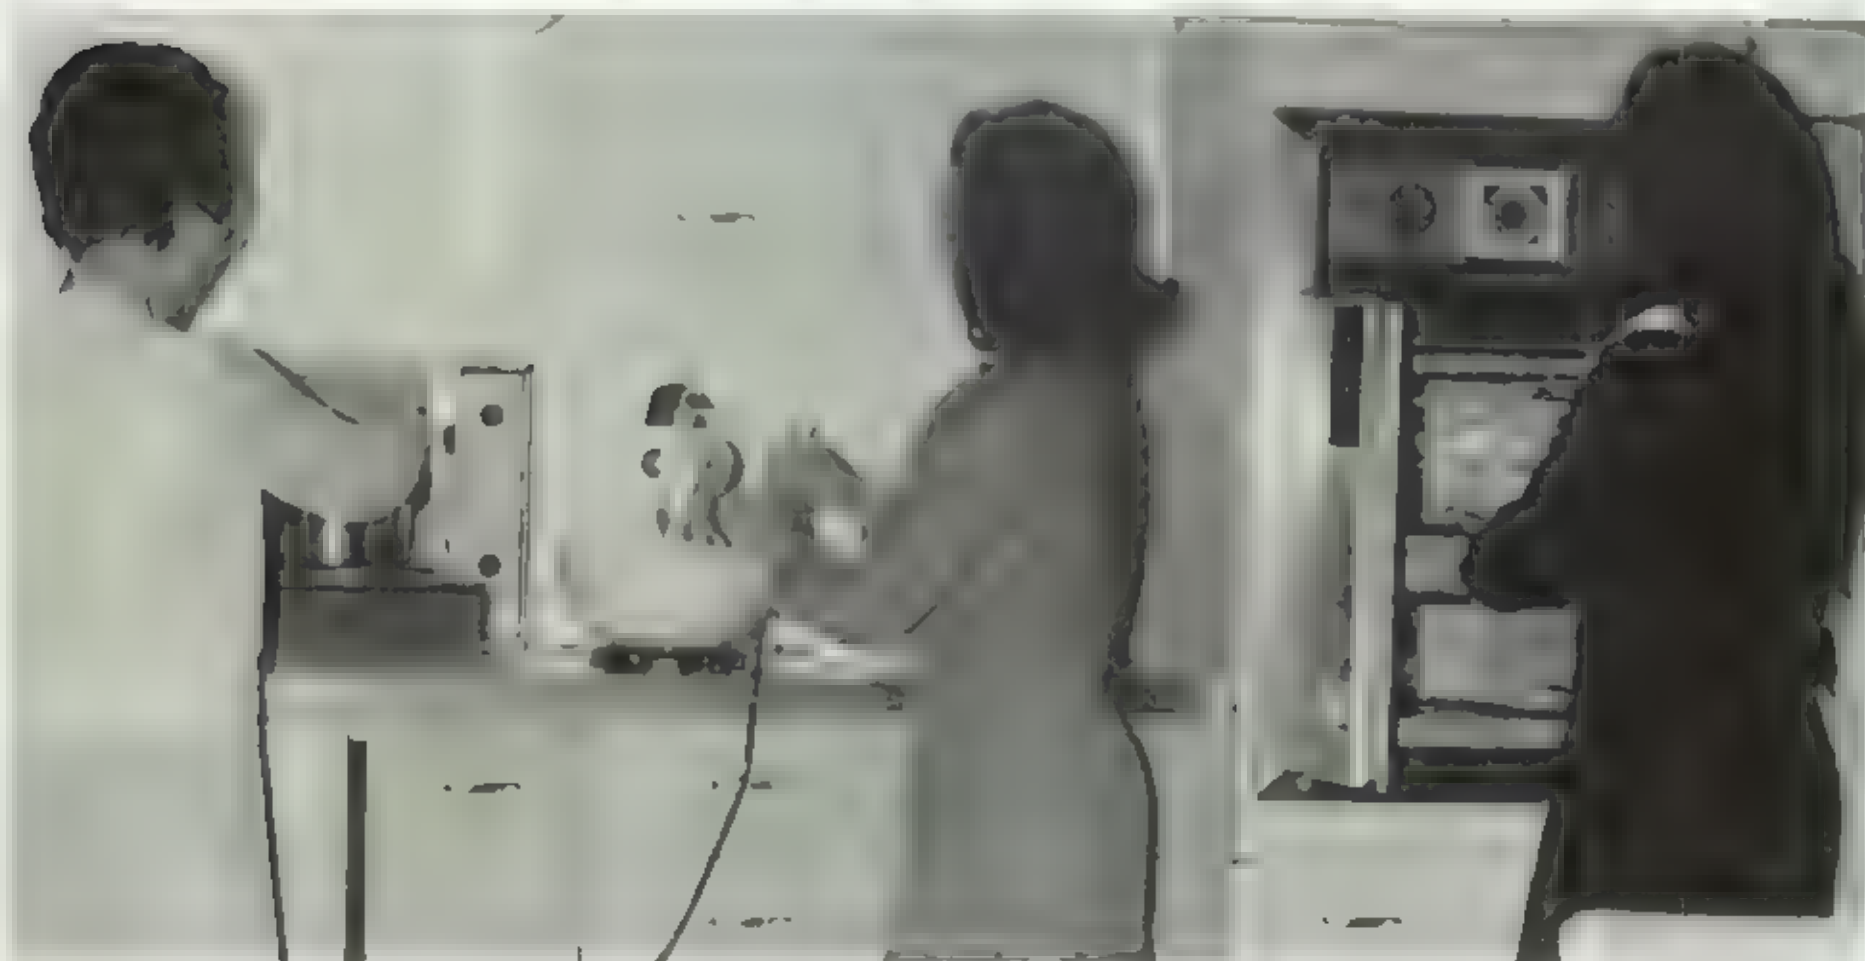

Gloria Anaya learns about the care of children in nursing

Preparation for the future is the purpose of education and LCHS provides practical courses to aid in this preparation. One of the areas is homemaking. The Homemaking Department offers courses in various aspects of home economics: four semesters of foods; the study of preparing and serving well planned meals; four semesters of clothing where clothing materials are studied and practical experience provided in many areas; home nursing; the study of nursing care in the home; and home and family living; the study of personal and social community relationships.

Besides typing and shorthand, courses are offered in bookkeeping, clerical and office training, business law, and distributive education.

Students scurry to get papers in on time.

Physical Education Develops

All students, both boys and girls, are required to take at least one year of Physical Education. This course teaches them the basic fundamentals and rules of the sports. Wrestling and weight training are offered to boys and volleyball, badminton, golf, gymnastics, and tennis are offered to all. A physical fitness test is administered at the beginning and end of each semester. Physical Education courses teach each student the ways of good sportsmanship and fair play Driver Education is a one semester course that gives the student an opportunity to learn the correct use of an automobile. It entails thirty hours of classroom instruction and requires a minimum of six hours driving experience. The course enables the student to develop favorable attitudes, helps him acquire a knowledge of driving, and instills within him fundamental driving skills.

We Are Proud of Our Honors and Organizations

Honors awarded to various students are not unusual at a school where the caliber of students is that of LCHS. Many people serve to bring recognition to Bulldogland by contributing hours of dedication to their area of accomplishment.

Led by members of the National Honor Society, academics flourish in our school. We are indeed proud of these people who keep our academic rating constantly high. Besides this area of accomplishment, we have many students who have been selected on state and national levels for excellence in the fields of leadership and sports.

Without these leaders, Las Cruces High School's clubs and organizations would be nothing. Instead they are something; something of which every Bulldog can be proud. In all areas of interest, our clubs participate and bring recognition to our school.

We are indeed proud of our honors and organizations.

Stan Hansen, the pride of the 1966 Bulldog "front four" on the football team, was rewarded for his athletic excellence by being named honorable mention All-American. This honor, which places Stan in the elite of the high school football players of America, was issued following the end of the regular season.

Stan was a formidable opponent to all comers, and was largely responsible for the tenacious Bulldog offense and defense. He was also named to the first team New Mexico All-State football team, and will participate in the annual North-South football game later this year.

LCHS'ers Snare Top Honors

Donna Moon was selected as 1967 DAR Girl for her general good citizenship and leadership abilities.

Donna Moon was honored as the DAR Girl for the 1966-67 school year. This annual award, which is bestowed upon an outstanding senior girl by the Daughters of the American Revolution, is awarded after popular nomination by the members of the Senior class, and the successful completion of a general history and citizenship examination.

Donna is well-suited for this award, with a background of activity in such extracurricular activities as debate, speech, and science. She is also intellectually active, as evidenced by honors English IV class, and her calculus class at the University. All in all she has more than earned her award in many areas.

Boys' State and Girls' State Encourage Democracy

Boys' and Girls' State were eleven prominent members of the student body. This year four girls and seven boys represented LCHS: all students were juniors. These Cruces students took time from their summer vacations to attend the American Legion-sponsored activity. The purpose of this program is to teach teenagers the responsibilities of American citizens. This goal is accomplished by actually providing work in campaigns, elections, and holding office in a junior state government.

The National Honor Society of LCHS is composed of the cream of the Juniors and Seniors. Under the capable advice of Mrs. Sheley and the leadership of Russell Johnson, President, Jim Noble, Vice President, Donna Moon, Secretary, Charlie Brown, Treasurer, the members offer themselves in a voluntary tutoring service for the school. The members are chosen on the basis of scholastic ability, citizenship, and leadership.

Community Rewards Skills

The real merit of a high school is the recognition which the surrounding community places upon it. This year, LCHS has been fortunate in having a number of its students recognized for their skills. Our athletes were rewarded for their labors by being named to certain All State teams, and our teams were in great demand at surrounding sports events. Vernon Jacobs was recognized as state champion of the 180-pound wrestling class this year. Our speech members were also given various awards throughout this entire area, which only goes to show that LCHS just doesn't say more, it does more.

Each year, various LCHS Clubs honor certain individuals who, although they are not members of that particular club, are still honored for their service to the club.

This tradition was continued this year, with the Future Homemakers of America selecting Ricardo Ortega as their 1967 FHA Beau. Rickie Jo Hill was honored by the Future Farmers of America as their FFA Sweetheart. The Key Club of LCHS selected Kathy Sullivan as their Sweetheart, and honored her throughout the entire school year. Nancy Worthy was editor of the Bulldog Reminder for the 1966-67 school year. Nancy took this office in her junior year with a year's experience. She had been the first student to enroll in the Journalism course as a Sophomore. Dolores Sierra was selected as "C" Club Sweetheart for 1967. This honor is awarded to an outstanding Senior girl each year by this honorary group composed of all LCHS lettermen. Selected on the basis of beauty, skill, and contribution to the athletic program of our school, it is a coveted award desired by many young ladies.

Dodo, as she is commonly named by her many friends, has been a variety cheerleader for the past two years, and has served as head cheerleader this year. Her dedication to the sports program and revival of school spirit at LCHS has rightly earned her this high honor.

The pride of the 1967 "C" Club was lovely Dolores Sierra.

Greatest Bulldog, Sweetheart

Bulldog Sweetheart Dolores Sierra combines roles on Homecoming night, as she leads the cheerleading, while a member of the Court.

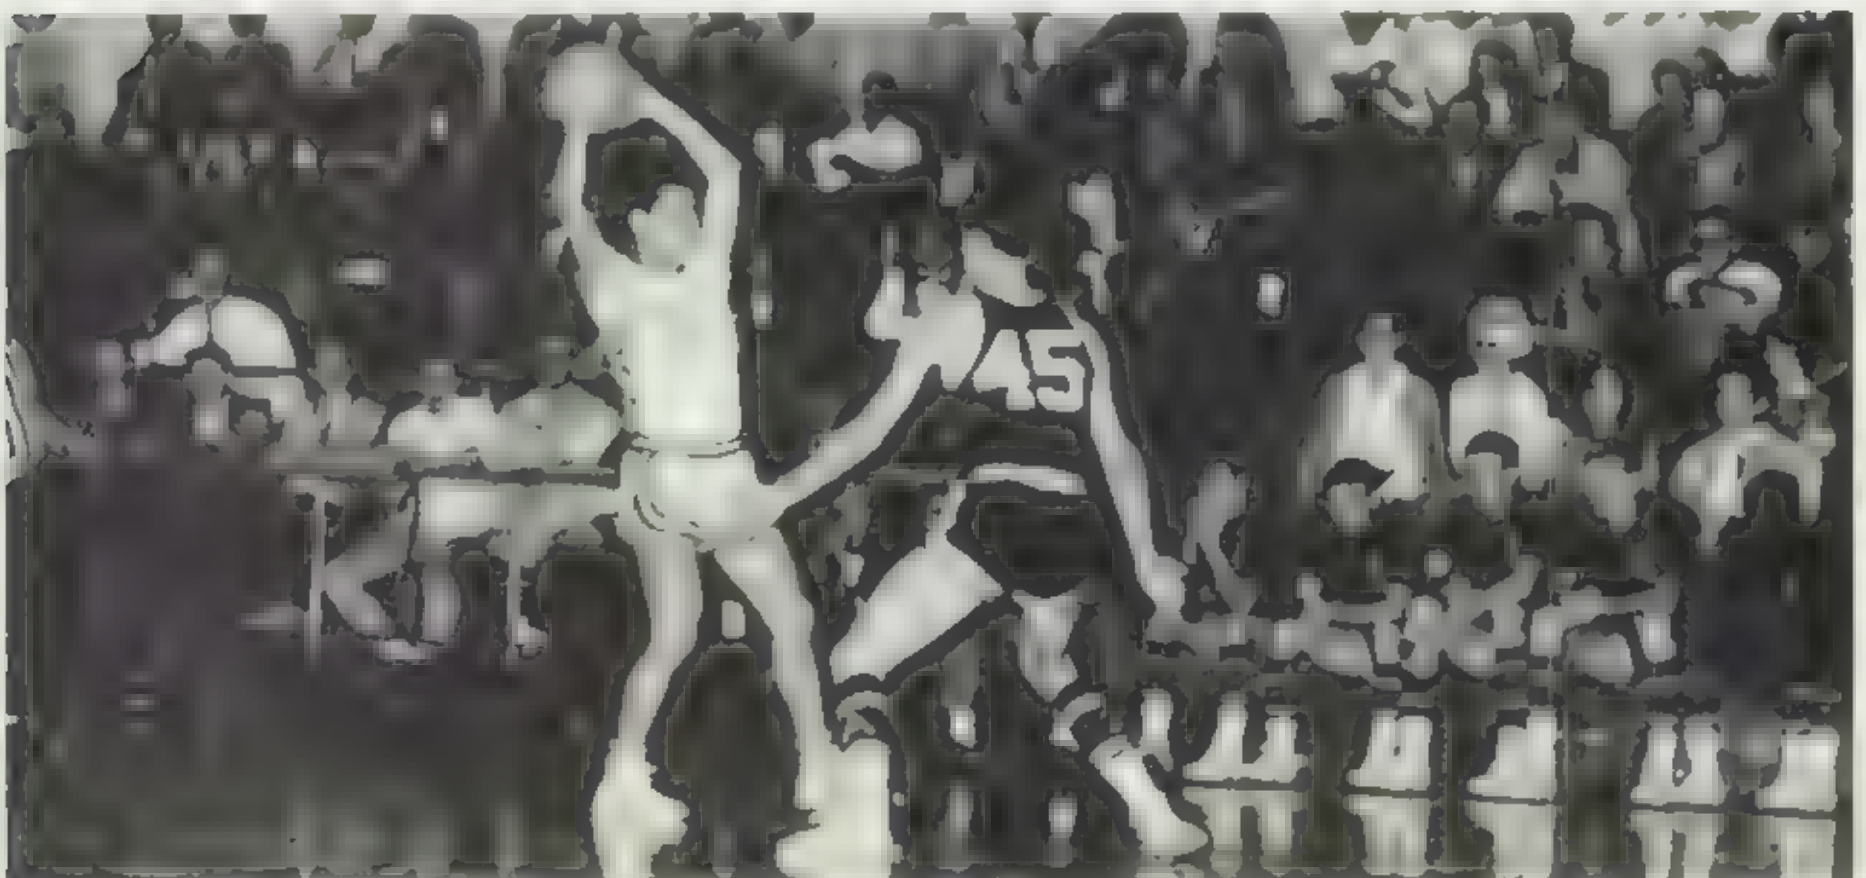

LCHS's highest honor to one of her athletes, the Greatest Bulldog of the year, was awarded to David Fierro this year. Having to first be nominated by the C. Club and then elected by a popular vote of the student body, the award epitomizes the acceptance of the athlete by the student body and their recognition of his prowess.

David was extremely active in sports throughout his entire three years at LCHS, being an important member of the football, basketball, and baseball teams. His actions both on the field and off have more than earned him the right to this coveted award.

David Fierro was selected Greatest Bulldog by the student body.

Homecoming Is Best Ever

Enthusiastic sophomores turned out, as did countless LCHS students, to help make Homecoming a success.

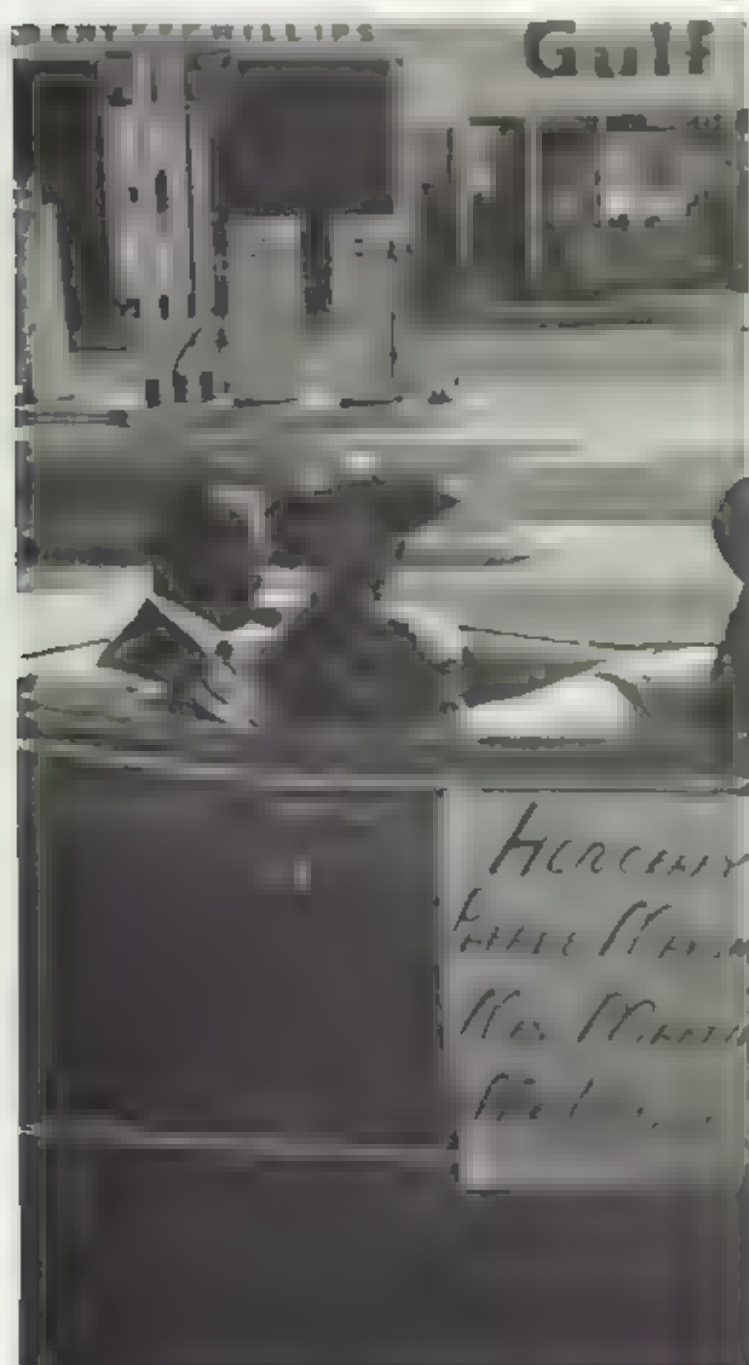

Homecoming 1966 thanks to the untiring efforts of countless LCHS students, was undoubtedly the greatest in the proud history of Las Cruces High School. The annual Homecoming parade, using the theme "Our Favorite Funnies," was held with the largest number of participants ever. The Junior Class float, "Dogpatch," took top sweepstakes honors, with the Sophomore Class float "The Flintstones," and the Senior Class float "Peanuts" also taking top honors in the judging. Following the parade, the mighty Bulldogs took on cross-state rival, Hobbs, at the Homecoming football game and emerged victorious. The Homecoming court was crowned in an impressive ceremony at halftime of the exciting game. The Homecoming dance was then held in the school cafeteria, to cap off a wonderful Homecoming day.

The Sophomore class float, "Flintstones," was awarded first place.

The unique "Outer Limits" provided music for the Homecoming dance.

Christmas Dance

Christmas 1966 was celebrated by the pageantry and beauty of the annual Christmas Dance. Planned over by Senior Queen Kathy Sullivan and Senior King David Ferris, the dance saw Seniors Cheryl Luky and Jimmy Hall, Juniors Holly Husted and Roy Patterson, and Sophomores Dana Kier and Steve Applegate and their attendants for the Christmas Court. Beautiful decorations were employed throughout the wonderfully adorned cafeteria and a magnificent flocked Christmas tree added a real touch of Christmas to the event. The Fabulous Frantics provided the music for the dance. Although it provided a tribute to the hard work and dedication of the sponsoring Class of '67.

Students and guests attending the Christmas Dance join in the spirit of the evening by enjoying the true purpose of a dance—dancing

Twirp Time Turns Tables

Each year, a Twirp Week is held at LCHS at which time the girls ask the boys for the dates and pay a portion of the expense. This year, the Shorthand Club sponsored week was highlighted by the Twirp Dance on February 3. A Valentine theme and matching motif added much to the beauty and glamour of the dance. The Shandies of Las Cruces provided the musical entertainment for the evening. The dance featured the crowning of the entire Twirp Court.

The Prom provided an enriching evening for the Senior's last formal dance of their high school days.

Prom Court Reigns Proudly

The 1966-67 Junior-Senior Prom topped off the social events of this year, with "Parisian Fantasy" as the theme for the Prom. Industrious juniors worked hard preparing the cafeteria with effective decorations. The evening was highlighted by the crowning of the queen, accompanied by her attractive court. This year's Prom Court and the dance itself will be remembered by Juniors and Seniors for many years to come.

Pride in Student Representation

The Student Council this year has striven to promote school pride and school spirit among all LCHS students. After a successful summer, the Student Council sponsored a handbook which listed its representatives, officers, and cheerleaders, as well as informed the student body of the words to the cheers and the songs, and of the proud tradition of LCHS. The "Howdy Dance," sponsored by the Student Council, proved that everyone at LCHS is proud of every aspect of our school's activities. The success of the 1966 Homecoming highlighted the result of many weeks of planning by members of the Student Council; the Homecoming Parade was the best in the history of LCHS.

Besides backing all efforts to stimulate school spirit, the Student Council also participated in several community projects, such as selling tickets to the Ladies' Open Golf Tournament, planting a tree in Apodaca Park as part of a city beautification project, organizing school-wide participation in the Trick-or-Treat for Charity on Halloween, and the Mothers' March of Dimes. Throughout the year, the Student Council contributed greatly to the development of pride and school spirit for another successful year at LCHS.

Student Council member, Charlie Brown, displays school spirit by decorating his Jeep for the Homecoming Parade.

Serving as Parade Marshals for the 1966 Homecoming Parade were Brod, Becky, Charlie, and Dole.

Student body co-presidents, Brad Eubanks and Kathy Sullivan, are joined by Pat Greathouse to publicize one of the Council's fund-raising activities. Here they are preparing to sell tickets to the Las Cruces Ladies' Open Golf Tournament.

Homecoming activities provoke this look of contemplation from various Student Council members. They decided that the Parade would be the best ever, and they set about making it such. Their enthusiasm in fostering school pride is exemplary to LCHS'ers.

Crosses Staff Works to Win Top Ratings!

Publications '67 brought deadlines looming to teach the value of self-discipline to the twenty-one members of the CROSSES staff. Members of the staff fostered pride in LCHS through posters for sales campaigns, taking pictures and developing them, drawing layouts, writing copy, checking and double checking production, meeting deadlines, distributing yearbooks, and having parties to relieve frustrations. Upon completion of the '67 CROSSES, the staff soon acquired new skills through a course offered for the first time, Journalistic Writing. The primary purpose of this course was to expose students to various aspects of journalism. A new feature in Publications was the magazine Echoes which was published to add to the nearly depleted fund for workshops and seminars. This finished product of concentration and hard work during the year is a memory book for all to cherish in later years.

When the yearbook was completed, the staff magazine Echoes was published to defray year. Mr. Wyatt and Phil Karnes look on with amusement of a word.

Future Teachers Promote Learning

A thirst for knowledge and the desire to help others achieve knowledge are two of the prerequisites for becoming a member of Future Teachers of America. Pamphlets, films, and talks by teachers are some of the methods used in the endeavor to acquaint students with the various aspects of the teaching profession.

The many activities of the F.T.A. include guiding parents around the school during the P.T.A. open house, as well as helping with the Trick or Treat for Charity and having bake sales during the lunch hour.

Under the direction of Mrs. Cross and Mr. Sterling, and with the challenge of the teaching world ahead of these F.T.A. members, they prepare to further their studies and take their place in the teaching world.

Science Club Exhibits Magic

The LCHS Science Club, affiliated chapter number 3919 of the Future Scientists of America, continued their intensive program of stimulating an interest in science this year. By such varied projects as monthly program meetings of scientific interest, field trips to nearby areas, club demonstrations, and interclub meetings, a ready interest in all areas of science was created among the membership. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Stephens, plans were also made to bestow the Science Club Member of the Year award at the annual spring honors assembly.

David Moon led the "Marching One-Hundred" through another successful season.

The Symphonic Band of LCHS has again upheld its reputation of superior performance. At football games, the "Marching One-Hundred" added colorful and exciting pageantry. Their hard work and long hours of practice were well-spent when they received a first division rating at the NMSU Marching Band Contest. The pep bands once more gave encouragement to the LCHS cagers at the home basketball games. This year there were twenty-four musicians representing LCHS at All-State. Pride and honor are brought to LCHS through the winning performances given by the band on its out-of-town trips to festivals and competitions.

Juanita Christopherson added a touch of sparkle to the half-time performances.

Orchestra and Ensemble Delight Many

Only when discipline, practice, organization, and cooperation are involved in the performance of a good orchestra, can one really appreciate the award-winning orchestra of LCHS and its experienced, able conductor, Mr. Cramer. These qualities make the orchestra one of the best-known in the Southwest.

The orchestra has earned consistently top ratings at district music festivals for the past three years. At last year's festival, seven soloists and four ensembles from the orchestra received top ratings. The honor violin soloist and honor ensemble was from LCHS.

This year, the orchestra's activities included two classic concerts, winter and spring, All-State orchestra for selected members, the district festival, and an out-of-state-trip.

String ensembles performed for different civic functions during the year as well as at festivals.

LCHS orchestra has a high percentage of musicians who qualify for All-State orchestra whose members are chosen by judges who audition students from all over the state.

Officers of orchestra are concert masters Susan Taylor and Pat Greathouse; secretary Marty Smith; librarians Emily Hartger and Denise Aguirre; and activities representative Chris Gose.

Pride in Competition

GAA is the athletic association for the sports-minded female members of Las Cruces High student body. The purpose of GAA is to foster sportsmanship in the game and on the sidelines, and to promote physical fitness by developing athletic abilities. The girls are encouraged to participate by a point system. The points accumulated are applied to awards such as a letter, a sweater, a pin, a bracelet, a necklace and a trophy.

Under the capable leadership of Miss White, the girls are able to develop pride in themselves, their activities and their school.

Members of GAA are Gracie Guadian, Sally Acosta, Dora Gutierrez, Socorro Castaneda, Maria Padilla, Margaret Lara, Teresa Flores, JoAnn Flores, Aurelia Flores, Henrietta Chavez, Brenda Pearce, Barbara Saiz, Gloria Quintana, Lucy Palacio, Barbara Rael, Geraldine Carrillo, Mary Cuaron, Star Hayner, Debbie Coleman, Marta Torres, Lupe Ramirez, Yolanda Pacheco, Virginia Sierra, Dolores Melon, Eriinda Herrera, Cruzita Herrera, Yolanda Montoya, Linda Good, Liz Tarr, Martha Varela, Sandra Pena, Sandra Perez, Mary Alvarez, Vickie Amann, Rosa Galegas, Renne Alvarez, Margaret Montoya, Eva Vargas, Bernie Ruiz, Rosemary Alfuna, Marisa Oenallas, Bea Aguirre, Mary Lou Alvares, Nancy Redman, Angie Ortega, Leslie Moccam, Martha Rosas, Olivia Rivera, Viola Morales, Gracie Morales, Ofelia Garcia, Bertha Chavez, Erene Martinez, Lupe Arreola, Pat Petrikin, Karen Lashaway, Sue Scarborough, Nan Page, Pat Estrada, Eva Kryntz, Linda Johnson, Linda Pierce, Mary Ontiveros.

Chorus Sings Pride

The Chorus department is divided into the Boys Chorus, the Girls Chorus, the Mixed Chorus, and the Mixed Ensemble. The Boys and Girls Choruses are basic courses that teach the students fundamentals of music and singing. The Mixed Chorus and Ensemble are select groups of students who have mastered the basics and have progressed to advanced compositions and pieces. They put on winter and spring concerts and often perform for various local organizations.

Office Workers Boast Efficiency

Answering the telephone, typing, and collecting absentee reports are a few of the many duties which are performed by the office workers. These students are chosen on a basis of responsibility, and a personal desire to gain knowledge in office technique. Without these willing volunteers, the efficiency of the high school offices would be definitely impaired.

Pride Through Art

Composed of students who have shown interest and talent in the field of art, the Art Club is one of the culture centered clubs of Las Cruces High School. The purposes of the Art Club, the promotion of appreciation of visual arts and the encouragement of imagination, are brought to the attention of the members of the club by their capable sponsor, Mr. James. In this year of pride, The Art Club strives for pride in their own work.

Art Club Officers are; Becky Holmberg, Secretary, Lisa Wright, President, and Dorcas Duttie, Treasurer.

Members of the Art Club are; Lupe Sifuentes, Becky Holmberg, Georgia Uebersax, Lisa Wright, Louise Otto, Erlinda Garcia, Tony Sanchez, Dorcas Duttie, Mary Centner

and Other Activities

With all the activities LCHS has to offer perhaps the most popular activity is friendly conversation before school.

Athletic Leadership Characterizes "C" Club

This year's "C" Club is a good example of Bulldog spirit and pride. Varsity lettermen compose the group; it is a safe bet that you will see any or all of them at any activity in Bulldogland.

In order to buy letter jackets for senior members, "C" Club members raise funds during the year by selling concessions at sports contests. Pride, a major factor involved in qualifying for membership in this club, is also the satisfaction that graduates receive as they wear their jackets.

Congratulations to all of our Bulldogs. Their pride and spirit keeps LCHS at the top.

Vernon Jacobs, 1966-67 "C" Clubs president, presides at a club meeting.

Coach Harold Coffman is the capable sponsor of the "C" Club; under his leadership the club's activities take shape.

We are proud of our teams!

Another area which maintains its share of pride earning ability is the sports segment of school life at LCHS. Even if the teams are not winning every game, the proud students continue to back them all the way. It doesn't take too much to be proud of people who are out to do the best they can, and who display the ability to be sportsmen regardless of the situations which arise.

Football, basketball, wrestling, cross country, track, gymnastics, tennis, and golf are among the sports which have brought honors to LCHS. Sports help to earn pride in our school.

Bulldogs Hard Hit by Injuries

The 1966 season was not a particularly successful one for the Bulldogs. However, the effort of a team is not always indicated by the final score. The '66 team showed great spirit and determination, as seen in their frantic comeback effort in the Austin game. Down 21-0 early in the first quarter, the Bulldogs held the Panthers scoreless for the rest of the game, losing 12-8. As in many other games during the season, the Bulldogs battled back violently in spite of heavy odds.

Despite an unusually high number of injuries the team did have its bright moments. The best effort of the year was the spirited Homecoming victory over the Mills Easter, one of the top-ranked teams in the State at the time. A combination of terrific blocking and the hard running of Roy Patterson and Jimmy Hall led to the 20-7 victory. It was a great team effort, upholding the old saying that every dog must have his day.

The team was not without its individual stars. Junior tailback Roy Patterson gained over 1000 yards from scrimmage, making him a possible choice for All-State honors.

This fierce tackle by Stan Hansen (75) and Mike Aldrich (81) is a good example of the Bulldog's spirited defense.

Wingback John Gutierrez snags a pass in the Bulldogs' 20-7 homecoming victory over Hobbs.

Led by Jim Coleman, Bob Apodaca, Eddie Trousdale, and Jaime Gonzalez, the 1966 Cross Country team had a highly successful season. The harriers placed second in the District meet behind Hobbs with Jim Coleman finishing fourth and Bobby Apodaca sixth. Outclassed at the State meet, the Bulldogs finished in fifth place. High finisher for the team was Bob Apodaca, who finished in ninth place. The Cross Country B team also had a successful season, providing runners for future years.

Squad Readies for Season

The tracksters opened their season in the Second Annual Burgess Inter-State meet on Saturday, March 4. The track squad finished sixth in the meet for the second year in a row. Featuring a team composed of mostly sophomores and juniors, the Bulldogs were headed by a strong distance contingent.

Of all the sports available, perhaps track demands more versatility because of the diverse and rigid requirements of the various track and field events. Coaches Allen and Boykin pushed the boys hard to meet the standards of skill and determination characteristic of LCHS

The "B" and "C" basketball teams of Las Cruces High School provide a well rounded training ground for the basketball program of LCHS. The "B" and "C" teams, through a series of drills on the fundamentals of the game, coupled with long hours of physical training, hope to provide a skilled group of boys ready to play in the varsity basketball games in years to come. The final test of the boys skill comes in their competition with the teams of other schools in the same state of readiness as themselves.

The Las Cruces High School Baseball team is out in force this year ready to take on the toughest. The team is strong, retaining most of their first nine from last year. They have batting power in such men as Joe Daniels and John Gutierrez, a veteran pitcher, Daniel Chavez, and baggers like Ken Lauterbach and Phil Mims. A heavy season this year means sweat for the whole team and extra planning by Coach Graham.

Jimmy Noble returns the ball with a back-swing, all in good form.

The tennis team at Las Cruces High has had little publicity in the past few years. We might say that the spirit of tennis doesn't deserve any notice because they don't play for the crowds such as baseball, basketball, or football do—we might say this but not in front of a Tennis player. The boys who take part in this sport must put long hours of constant undivided effort into their game. When one of them steps onto the court he is all alone and will win or not on his ability; with no one else to get the blame or the glory. The team sports are fine to watch but to get a good idea of what effort really is, go to a tennis match and you'll see true work and effort on the players behalf.

We are proud of our people !

Pride can easily be generated by sports, by activities, by organizations, and even by learning, but more important than all of these is the pride generated by the people of LCHS. These people range from the school board, the superintendent, the principal through the other officials, Office workers, librarians, nurses, classroom teachers, to the seniors, juniors, and sophomores. All of these people are an integral part of that earned pride that cannot be duplicated. People are the essence of the stuff of which pride is made, and they are the force that keeps it alive.

Crosses has shown you pride. It is fitting that we should end with a pride in our people.

School Administration

The population of the Las Cruces School District has doubled within the past two years, and this growth has brought with it the many attendant problems of finance, facilities, program, and staff. The Las Cruces Board of Education, which consists of a group of well-informed and dedicated citizens, has met each of these problems with dispatch and effectiveness. Its members serve without pay and have been tireless in their efforts to provide an outstanding program for the students of this community. All indications are that the school district will maintain its rapid growth within the years to come. The Board will continue to meet the challenges and demands of the future both aggressively and effectively.

Mr. Miller Guides Pride at LCHS

Many problems come up in the administration of a large high school such as LCHS. These problems are readily met by our administrative staff. Under the able and expert guidance of Mr. Luit K. Miller, we find in the administrative staff an unusual pride in achievement. This is a pride in the work they do for the school and its students. Laboring diligently at the task of effectively leading our school, Mr. Miller, along with Mr. Foltz and Mr. Camunez, meets every difficulty head-on and manages to solve each problem posed to him. After eight years of experience at LCHS, our principal entered the 1966-1967 school term with an insight into the many hectic events of the year to come. It has turned out to be one of the best years in LCHS history.

Another important office at LCHS is the guidance office. Mr. Holmberg, Mrs. Stryker, and Mr. Sterling have untiringly worked to see that each student has a well-planned program

Class of 1967 In Action

Juniors Sharon Wood, Richard Ortega, Larry Campbell, Steve Roberts, Dale Graves, and Patty Clark work hard to make the Howdy Dance successful.

Nancy Dregne takes a break from her book to smile for the camera. Her devotion to her studies is typical of juniors.

As students form a victory line at one of the home games, junior Juan Hernandez leads a junior-filled varsity squad back onto the gridiron

As all of these juniors could tell you, lots of hard work is needed to win Sweepstakes in the parade.

Steve displays enthusiasm

Sheila and Patrice made a sale to spirited Coach Graham.

Juniors in Action

Holly and Anna engage in what appears to be a tug-of-war.

John Garrett is an active junior member of Student Council.

Dale Groves exemplifies the serious concentration exhibited by juniors.

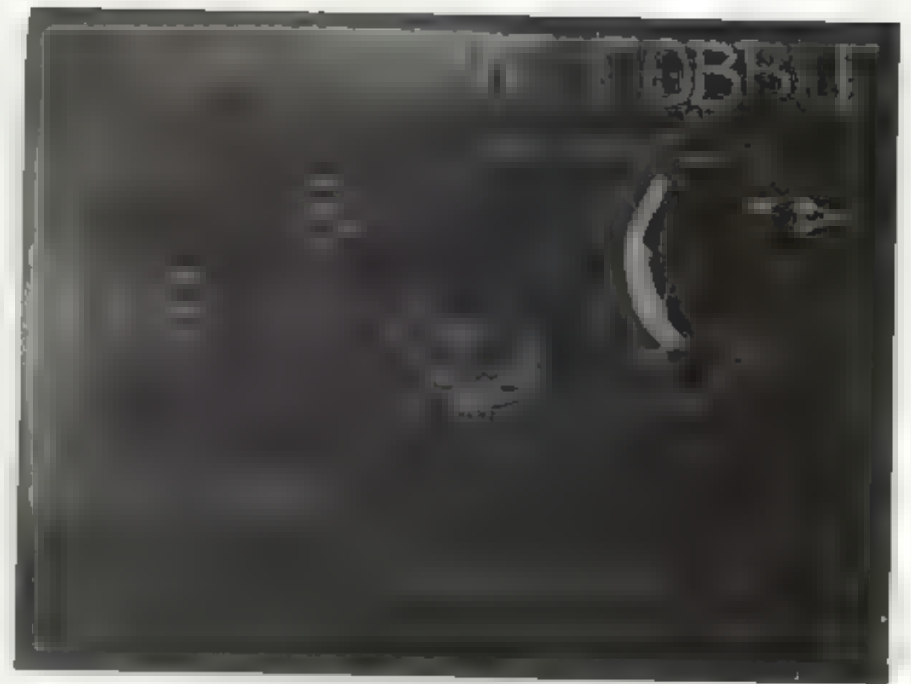

Diana Acosta is one of many juniors who had a part in the success of 1966 homecoming.

The poster used by Steve Cobble in his campaign for Student Council Representative shows the pride that our sophomores have in LCHS

Sophomores

To help raise money to pay for the Homecoming float, these sophomores pay their class dues during their lunch period

After working constantly for many hours, the sophomores were rewarded with first place in the parade.

To Ronnie,
 a real fellow football. He really enjoyed having speed with you. Some of you want on the way out I wish you the best and good luck.
 Always,
 Fred Jones

Ron,
 I'm sure you missed your great guy and I'm glad you'll really go far in life with good luck and I hope I have made a little bit of a difference in your life.

Ronnie,
 You have been one of my best subjects this year. Father of the Constitution, Science advisor, and Personal aide are but three of your many services to your fatherland. Last, how about next year, we will conquer more land in the name of Transylvania.
 your worthy rex.
 Randy Foltz
 It's been great.
 Having you in Spanish Suburban

Ronnie,
 Just want you know to let you know that I'm from a year ago. Remembering you here at H.C.H.S. I'll never forget you, cause of it was not for you sitting behind me in English III and helping me out and all, I wouldn't of never made it!
 I wish you all the luck in the world with your future endeavors. Keep up the good work. Don't forget to be good, even though it'll be hard for you! I hope to see you next year.

P/s Boy am I tired!!

Love,
 Nick
